Searching in Cemeteries

Willis G. Corbitt

October 11, 1958

Gregg Family Cemetery is the N.W. 1/4 S.W. 1/4, S. 25, T. 12 N. R. 11 W.

About six miles west of Fairfield, Jefferson Co., Iowa

To reach this cemetery from Fairfield, Iowa, travel west about six miles on U.S. Highway No. 30 to the farm of Clarence Hagens on the south side of the road. At the driveway entrance to the home is an artistic sign marked "Bernhart Station". The railroad siding by the same name is nearly a quarter of a mile south of the Highway. To reach the cemetery, follow the line south past the farm house, barn and chicken house to a wire fence running east and west. Turn west and follow the wire fence for a distance of about 1000 feet until arriving at a clump of Oak trees surrounded by a woven wire fence. Within the enclosure, which is about 100 feet square, are the remains of the head and foot stones. Most of them have fallen or been pushed over and some are broken. The names on the stones indicate the members of the last five families who were buried there.

It was learned from a neighboring farmer that in Jefferson Co., Iowa, there is a tax law which permits the collection of funds that can be used for the care of such isolated burying grounds. In this instance "care" seems to have been limited to the construction of a fence, and that done only after the hogs had rooted up the surface of the ground and knocked over most of the headstones.

After tamping the sod covered ground with a stick, about fifteen stones were located and the dirt brushed off in order to show the inscription, such as had not been weathered away. In the southwest corner of the plot was found a headstone measuring about ten inches square and three feet long lying on the ground. Upon cleaning the surface one could read "Andrew Gregg died Mar. 28, 1872 aged 73 yrs. 4 mo. 9 days" that would indicate he was born Nov. 19, 1798 which did not agree with the information previously obtained from the obituary notice in the newspaper which stated he was born April 8, 1799. The weathered inscription may have been read incorrectly.

On the opposite side of the same stone was the inscription for his wife, "Elizabeth Gregg died May 6, 1884 79 years 11 mo. 26 days." That would make her birthdate April 6, 1804, which agreed with information obtained elsewhere. On another side of the stone was the inscription "Memory of our parents".

Other stones found were:

Harvey A., son of S. & A. Dickson died May 11, 1860 age 3 yrs. 11 mo. 2 days.

Samuel Dickson son of S. & A. Dickson

Ella died June 16, 1879 aged 16 years
